Furniture By the Acre!

That is a somewhat peculiar way of putting it. Furniture is not usually sold by the acre. Neither do we sell it that way. We only want to impress upon you the very extensive character of our establishment. In these days, when furniture is made in three or four different woods and finishes, it requires an acre lot to enable a dealer to present to the public a complete assortment in whatever wood the purchaser may chance to prefer.

So we say we have three acres of furniture to show you; one acre of floor surface at Fort Wayne, one acre at Lafayette, and one acre at Terre Haute. This is more than double the space given to the furniture trade by any other firm in the state.

But what is more important still for you is, that

We sell only the most carefully made goods.

We always have the newest and most desirable styles.

We permit no misrepresentation of goods.

We have but one price, but that is always below any of our competitors.

We guarantee every article sold to be free from any faults of manufacture.

We ship all bills of goods amounting to $25 and upwards, to any town within fifty miles of Fort Wayne, free of all freight charges.

We are also the largest retailers in the state of Indiana, of

SECRETARY BAYARD!

He Sends a Man-of-War to Hayti for the Protection of American Citizens.

New York, Oct. 30.—The seizure of the American steamer Haytian Republic has become an international episode, as will be seen by the following letter from Secretary of State Bayard:

Department of State,
Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.

Messrs. Lord & Austin, New York City:

Gents:—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th, in which you inform the department of the the seizure of the American steamship Haytian Republic, at St. Marie, and request that, in view of the serious state of affairs in Hayti at the present time and of the jeopardy in which the lives and property of Americans are now placed, that a man-of-war be sent thither immediately.

The department has received information of similar purport from the United States minister at Port-Aù-Prince, and a reply has instructed him to protest instantly against the action of the Haytian authorities and has informed him that a man of war will be ordered to Haytian waters as soon as possible. I am, gentleman, your obedient servant.

T. F. Bayard.

The navy department has been requested by the secretary of state to send a man-of-war to Hayti to look after the American interests there, which appear to be jeopardized by the seizure of the American steamer Haytian Republic, at St. Marie, and other disturbing events at Port-au-Prince, At present all the vessels of the north Atlantic station are laid up in the navy yards for repairs, except the Boston, which is now at some Central American port beyond the reach of telegraph. Efforts will be made to communicate with her and it is expected that the vessel will reach Hayti in a few days.

RIDING ON A PASS.

A Gratuitous Passenger Recovers for Injuries Sustained on a Railroad.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 30.—In the court of appeals, one of Judge Ramsey's opinions yesterday affirms the judgment in the case of Leona Bryan vs. the Missouri Pacific railway company, awarding the plaintiff damages for injuries sustained on the road while riding on a pass. One of the conditions of the pass was that the person using it assumed all risk of accidents. The court instructed the jury that, even though they might believe that the plaintiff was a gratuitous passenger, such fact did not affect the issues in the case and was no defense.

MINISTER WEST.

The Cabinet Hold a Consultation To-day—Phelps' Communication.

London, Oct. 30.—United States Minister Phelps has returned to London from Hatfield house, where he has been in consultation with Lord Salisbury, presumably respecting the letter of Minister Sackville West. The department of state has received cablegrams from him fully explaining the situation, which will be laid before the cabinet meeting to-day. For the present, the information touching the nature of Minister Phelps' communication is withheld.

Wanted Them to Use Dynamite.

Pittsburg, Oct. 30.—An unknown man, claiming to be from Chicago, was among the strikers at the spike mill of Dilworth, Porter & Co., on the southside yesterday, endeavoring to influence them to use dynamite to gain their aims. The strikers, however, would give him no encouragement but told him they would win the strike by peaceable means or not at all.

Will Have Two Parades.

Indianapolis, Oct. 30.—The democrats and republicans of this city have both arranged for political demonstrations and parades Saturday evening, and Mayor Denny has concluded not to issue his proclamation forbidding these counter demonstrations, as he had intended to do.

Not Guilty.

Chicago, Oct, 30—Justice Hamburger this morning discharged the alleged dynamite conspirators, Kaseberg, Thompson, Nicholson and Magee, who were charged with placing dynamite on the street car tracks during the strike. The justice held that the evidence did not warrant him in holding the men.

KILLED BY THE MARSHAL.

Arthur Watkins, the Desperado, Shot and Instantly Killed at Huntington.

Huntington, Oct. 30.—Yesterday afternoon Arthur Watkins, better known as "Windy" Watkins, assaulted and badly injured Edgar Barrick. The row occurred at the saloon formerly owned by Gus Nellis, on Jefferson street. Watkins was arrested and taken to the office of the mayor, and while awaiting trial, Marshal Rosebrough went out to summon witnesses. While he was gone, Watkins stepped out of the mayor's office, and giving the man in whose charge he was, the slip, took leg bail and ran westward on Market street. Rosebrough was at once notified of his escape, and jumping into a buggy, accompanied by John Freese, gave chase. They sighted the fugitive near the residence of Jacob Allis, on Matilda street, and Rosebrough called upon him to surrender. Rosebrough then got out of the buggy and gave chase, firing three shots at Watkins. At this point, the marshal's story of the tragedy is that Watkins came up to him threatening to assault him, and swearing he could not be arrested. The marshal demanded his surrender, but Watkins rushed towards him, and to save himself, Rosebrough, after warning, fired his revolver point blank. The shot was a fatal one, and Watkins fell to the earth and almost instantly expired.

The shooting took place at the lot of W. H. Smith, the drayman, on Tipton street. John Freese, Sam Runkle and John Howe witnessed the affair, and say that Watkin's had his revolver drawn and was threatening Rosebrough's life, and that Rosebrough shot not an instant too soon. The bullet struck Watkins in the mouth, and he fell forward on his face. Rosebrough came down town at once and placed himself at the disposal of the officers

The dead man is a son of David Watkins, a very respectable man of Lagro, and for many years a boatman on the Wabash and Erie canal.

Fatally Injured by the Cars.

Shelbyville, Ind., Oct. 30.—Lewis Stillwell, aged eighteen, was fatally injured by a passenger train on the J., M. & I., four miles south of here, last evening, while trying to cross the track.

Ex-Governor St. John and Miss Helen Gougar will speak at Indianapolis to-morrow evening.

A FATAL PLUNGE!

An Immense Iron Bridge Falls Into the River and Several Men Are Killed and Injured.

Duquoin, Ill., Oct. 30.—Yesterday afternoon, near Blairsville, about sixteen miles from here, a gang of men were repairing an iron truss bridge. An order was given one man to loosen a girder a fraction of an inch. The girder was one of the main supports and one turn of the wrench swung the bridge out of plumb, and without a moment's warning the vast mass dropped into the water, fifty-feet below. Wm. Thompson was instantly killed and Arthur McRea, James Campbell, D. Maffield, John Edmunds and Theodore Harris were fatally injured. W. H. McRea, Thomas Robinson, Miles Harris, Frank Leech and an unknown man were seriously injured. The bridge was the largest one of the kind in the state, 170 feet in clear.

COLONIZING VOTERS.

Pittsburg Negroes to be Sent to Indiana to Vote for Harrison.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 30.—For the past few days emissaries of the republican central committee have been busily engaged in collecting negroes to send to the Indiana natural gas fields to vote for Harrison November 6. It is known that a large number of these negro repeaters will be sent to the Hoosier state this week. But this scheme of the republican managers will not be successful, as all negroes going from here will be spotted, and upon attempting to vote will find themselves in serious trouble.

Mrs. David Davis Married.

Raleigh, S. C., Oct. 30.—Wharton J. Green, ex-congressman from the Third North Carolina district, and Mrs. Addie E. Davis, relict of Vice President David Davis, were married at Fayetteville yesterday. The bride, whose maiden name was Burr, was a relative of Congressman Green's first wife, and was married to Mr. Davis at his house early in the spring of 1883.

An "Old Defender" Dead.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 30.—Nathaniel Watts, aged ninety-three, died of pneumonia, in this city yesterday He was an "old defender," one of the patriots who, September 12, 1814, repulsed the British attack upon Baltimore.

A REVOLTING STORY

Of Savage Atrocities and Cannibalism in Africa—A Horrible Festival.

London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Bonny river, Africa, gives a revolting story of savage atrocities and cannibalism. The Okrikan tribe, in revenge for some injury, invited a party of Ogonis to a friendly palaver, and then entrapped and massacred them.

A cannibal festival of the most horrible and indescribable character followed. Then an attack was made upon the undefended villages, and the most barbarous outrages were committed. It is estimated that over one hundred and fifty persons, including women and children, were killed and eaten.

THE BANDANA WAVES

At Wheeling, W. Va., To-day, for Thurman is There.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 30.—To-day was a democratic day in this city and the fact was first made manifest by the unfurling of bandana streamers from stores and residences in all parts of the town. The big cannon on the hill above the city waked many early in the morning and kept up regular cannonading during the whole day. The early trains brought people in from neighboring places in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, uniformed clubs being present from Pittsburg, Allegheny City, Steubenville, Martins Ferry, Moundsville, Bellaire and many other points, besides a number of local organizations.

The crowds lined the streets on which the procession had been advertised to move and gave hearty greeting to the various clubs, and cheered lustily at the sight of Judge Thurman. It took forty-five minutes for the procession to pass a given point.

This afternoon the state orators are holding forth on stands in the open air. To-night Judge Thurman will speak in the rink, whi e a torchlight procession will parade the streets.

Yellow Fever.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Surgeon General Hamilton has received a telegram from Surgeon Gulers saying he has examined every man, woman and child and every room and house in Baldwin, Florida, and that there is not a particle of sickness.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM, 1888, ON INTERNAL TAXES.

. . . . "We favor the entire repeal of the Internal Taxes,
(That is, FREE WHISKEY)
Rather than the surrender of any part of our 'Protective' system."

THE TWO PLATFORMS.
[From the Christian Union.]

Two policies are proposed. The Democratic party proposes to confine appropriations of public money to such sums as are necessary for an economical administration of the Government, to retain the tax on alcohol, to modify the tax on tobacco, and to reduce the tax on imports by admitting raw materials free of duty and by reducing taxes on all articles of necessity.

	Republican.	Democratic.
Tax on tobacco, ...	Abolish.	Modify.
Tax on alcohol, ...	Reduce or Abolish	Retain.
Tax on raw materials, ...	Retain.	Abolish.
Tax on necessaries, ...	Retain.	Reduce.
Tax on luxuries, ...	Retain.	Retain.
Object of tax, ...	Protection.	Revenue.
Expenditures, ...	Liberal.	Economical.

August 29, 1888, Colonel Ingersoll said:—"Mere liquor does not make drunkenness. The moral question of the whole thing is to have the burden of Government rest as lightly as possible. Temperance walks hand in hand with liberty. I do not think that if the Mississippi river ran pure whiskey and the banks were loaf sugar, and the flats grew mint, and the bushes were teaspoons and tumblers, there would be one more drunken man than now."

June 4, 1878, James A. Garfield said:—"In the third group I place wines, spirits and tobacco in its various forms. On these the duties range from 85 to 95 per cent. ad valorem, and from them we collected last year $100,000,000 of revenue. The wisdom of this tax will hardly be disputed by anyone."

SO CALLED "HIGH" LICENSE AND VERY LOW LICENSE.

THREE KILLED!

And Several Injured by the Explosion of a Tug on the Lakes.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 30.—The tug W. A. Lawrence, exploded her boiler while cruising in the lake off the north point at 2:30 this morning, killing Capt. John Sullivan, Engineer John Sullivan, a cousin of the captain, Fireman Edward Sullivan and a line man named Thomas Hanley. The boat was blown to pieces.

Frank McGoman, the cook, and Thomas Dooley, a chance visitor on the tug, were picked up from among the floating debris by the crew of the tug Merrill, which happened to be close by. Both were severely bruised and cut.

The men who lost their lives were all residents of this city. The tug was owned by John McCoy and James Banner and was valued at $4,500. It was comparatively new, but had an old boiler and engine.

A Big Fire.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—The great fire at Huenfeld, near Cassel, continues to spread. Three hundred houses, including public buildings, have been consumed. A force of military and thirty fire brigades from adjacent places are endeavoring to get control of the flames.

Failure.

New York, Oct. 30.—Samuel Lœwenstein, a manufacturer of gents' wear and merchandise, at 555 Broadway, assigned to-day to Joseph Bierhoff, no preference being given.

Jacob Falk, of Bluffton, came to the city to-day with the avowed purpose of killing his wife, Rachel Falk, who ran away from him and came to the home of his son-in-law, Edward Brown, in this city. Falk has threatened every one who proposed to interfere with him and on a warrant sworn out by his wife was arrested and taken before Justice France. He will be held to keep the peace and his wife will apply for a divorce.

The public will be glad to learn that the Western Union Telegraph company will be enabled to serve bulletins on the coming election from a more convenient location than their office at the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad depot. Manager Perry has arranged with Supt. W. W. Worthington for the use of the railroad wire of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad between Cincinnati and Fort Wayne, by connecting temporarily a wire from Supt. Worthington's office, on the north side, to a point over in the city to complete the circuit. Manager Perry says this wire will be made to form a circuit with Indianapolis and Cincinnati and bulletins will be handled in first-class order.

INDIANA is all right.

DOWN with monopolies.

THE monopolists are on the run?

TRUSTS are private schemes to rob the public.

GIVE us four years more of honest government.

THE betting all over the country is in favor of Cleveland.

ONLY seven days until the re-election of Grover Cleveland.

"UNNECESSARY taxation is unjust taxation."—Grover Cleveland.

NOW, BOYS, for a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull together.

INDIANA is against free whisky, Chinese immigration, and monopoly taxes.

THE bloody shirt will receive a few more shakes this week, and then will be put away forever.

A certain bold Briton named West,
Tried to Burchardize the Prest.,
But sturdy Old Grover
Looked the fellow over
And told him to pull down his vest.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has demonstrated that the country is safe in his hands. Many a sensible man will vote to let well enough alone.

NEW YORK, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana and California are safe. Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota are the doubtful states.

THE "free trade scare" has failed to scare, and the John Bull trick has fooled nobody. Now what will the republicans try next?

DUDLEY says Indiana can not be bought. We don't think it can, and therefore we are very sure its electoral vote will be cast for Cleveland.

BEN HARRISON, in his Saturday night speech, spoke very pathetically of the prospect that he would continue to be "a private citizen of Indianapolis."

PUTTING hides on the free list, says a high tariffite in the Boston Advertiser, did not reduce their price. If this is true, why should putting wool on the free list reduce its price?

SOME republicans are openly offering to trade everything for a vote for Captain White. They know the state is lost and are making an effort to seize something. The death struggle will not avail. The sweep will be complete.

CONGRESSMAN WHITE spoke out at Dutch Ridge in this county, the other night and among his hearers was Mr. Adam Harkey, a well known farmer. Mr. Harkey listened to Mr. White's speech and at once proceeded to his home where he cut down a sugar pole erected in honor of Captain White. He is not pleased with the captain's advocacy of high taxes, and is not a little surprised at the change in Captain White's former liberal views.

THIS is the last week of the campaign. Good work has been done thus far and success is as certain as we can wish for. Grover Cleveland will be re-elected and the tax reform movement will not cease until taxes are reduced. The issue can be strengthened by sending a reformer to congress from this Twelfth district in place of a man who votes as the republican leaders instruct him. The fight must be made all along the line. A tax reform president and a tax reform congress will reduce the war taxes.

MR. C. G. CONN, of Elkhart, has been chosen as the democratic candidate for joint representative for the counties of Elkhart, Noble and DeKalb. Mr. Conn is well known and very popular all over Northern Indiana.

MR. CHARLES MCVEAGH, of Pennsylvania, son of Hon. Wayne McVeagh, attorney general in President Hayes' cabinet, is on the stump for Cleveland and Thurman. Mr. McVeagh is a grandson of General Simon Cameron, and a nephew of United States Senator Don Cameron.

WE are glad to learn that the prospects are very bright for the election of Hon. A. N. Martin to congress, in the Eleventh district. Mr. Martin is a democrat from away back. Is a man of great ability and wonderful energy. He went through the war as a private soldier, and has hosts of friends among the soldiers. He will make a hard-working and useful congressman.

MEMBERS of both political parties, in this city, are to be congratulated upon the good, neighborly feeling with which the campaign has been conducted in Fort Wayne. While in some cities in the state much bitterness has been engendered, threatening serious consequences in the next few days, here no trouble is apprehended and the election of a week from to-day bids fair to pass over without an unpleasant incident. This is as it should be.

WHAT is tariff? A tax put upon imported articles in order that such goods shall be manufactured in America. The object of so doing? The protection of those who have invested or will invest their money in manufacturing. The result? Protection to the manufacturer and an additional charge to every man; woman and child who purchase their articles. But it is claimed that the tariff increases the wages of the American mechanic. Is this true? It might do so if there was a tariff on the importation of workers from abroad; but as such is not the case, it does not. There are more than enough foreigners landed on our shores to supply the increased demand for workers. What protection does the tariff give an idle workman? Every mechanic can ask himself this question.

MR. LEVI P. MORTON, the republican candidate for vice president, is head of the London banking firm of Morton, Rose & Co., which is managing the financial end of the salt trust or "union" which has just been organized. The scheme includes nothing less than the combination of all the salt-producing industries of the world into one gigantic corporation for the purpose of increasing and maintaining the price of this staple necessary of life at figures which, according to the prospectus, will pay the investors at least 20 per cent. dividends per annum. It is not strange that all the great trusts, including S. Bash & Co., of this city, are supporting the republican ticket when the nominee for vice president is himself identified with a scheme to form one of the most gigantic trusts on earth.

BOTH political parties have been arranging for a parade at Indianapolis Saturday next and great expectations were entertained as to the result. A hitch comes, however, in the shape of an intimation from Mayor Denny that no parades will be permitted. He says: "I shall first exert every influence to secure a compromise agreement between Harding and Taggart by which they will use the streets on another and separate nights, I care not when; but if this cannot be accomplished by to-day then I shall issue a proclamation denying to either party the use of the streets on the night in question and call on the police authorities to enforce the order. The comment that may be occasioned by this announcement I care nothing about; as the head of the city government I have only the safety of the people to consider." The democrats say that Denny is but a tool of the republicans, who realize their weakness and want to avoid a comparison. The Indianapolis Sentinel says the democratic parade will come off as advertised.

A LESSON ON PROTECTION.

The republicans, having been driven from the tariff issue, are resorting to every trick known to the political trade, but the people are seeking facts not fancies.

Perhaps this lesson on protection will interest workingmen:

In the city of Pittsburg, it is reported, there are over seventy millionaires, made such by a protective tariff.

Now, that is well enough, as far as it goes. We are not sorry that seventy gentlemen have all the money they want and to spare, and only wish the number might be multiplied by ten or 100.

But here's the rub: In that same city there are something like 30,000 wage earners, with muscle, brains, good health and all the apparatus necessary to getting a livelihood, who are idle.

Now, the republicans tell us that protection is a blessing, and we admit it so far as these millionaires are concerned. But won't you kindly tell us what share of protection has fallen to the lot of these 30,000 idle men and their families?

THE REPUBLICAN TRADING TRICKS.

The republicans are organizing into trading cliques and propose to practice every sharp device.

One of their schemes is to ostensibly trade Harrison for a vote for Mr. White, or some county commissioner. They tell you, "We will strike Harrison's name from our ticket and substitute Cleveland if you will do likewise for some minor office."

No man, of course, votes directly for Cleveland or Harrison, and it would not matter if their names were not on the ticket at all. We vote for the presidential electors and the electors receiving the most votes will convene as an electoral college on the second Monday in January, and choose the president and vice-president in accordance with their party dictates.

The mere substitution of Cleveland's name for Harrison would not avail an atom, but the changing of any other name on the ticket would avail, for we vote for them directly.

Democrats will do well to be alert to all republican sophistries and give them a dose of their own medicine, if it is such a good thing.

The Other Side.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

An article in this morning's Gazette signed "Sober" Sam" strikes me just where I live. He says, "If I come to your city with an empty stomach, coat out at the elbows and no money in my pocket, I may see in your stores and groceries an abundant supply of all things that I need, but there will be no business transaction between us." He forgets that it has been said that bread is the staff of life and whisky life itself. So say I, give us plenty of free whisky and we want no bread. That is why I am going to vote for Harrison and free whisky. Hurrah! for Harrison and free whisky and rum blossomed noses. I am a laboring (?) man and spend my money at saloons, when I have any, and the more whisky I can get for my money the better I like it. I am a member of the Tip-pe-cum-too club and every mother's-son-of-us will vote for Harrison and free whisky.

A Fort Wayne Colony in Texas.

ENNIS, TEXAS, Oct. 27, 1888.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL:

Thinking it will interest some of the numerous readers of THE SENTINEL, I am induced to note a little colony from and about Fort Wayne, who are enjoying the natural advantages of being residents of this part of the Lone Star state.

Mr. C. M. Joly, formerly of Maples, and trustee of Jefferson township for several terms, and well known in Fort Wayne, having been a resident of Allen county for nearly forty years, has a place he can well be proud of; 200 acres of prairie land, most of it in cultivation; also an orchard stocked with fruit trees of every variety. His peach crop this year from trees four years old, amounted to upward of 350 bushels, all choice fruit. He or his family have not known illness since their coming to "Eden," as he calls this country, and are doing well.

Mr. Peter Coonrad, of six miles east of Fort Wayne, who came here four years ago, is a neighbor of Mr. Joly's; is doing well, having a beautiful farm out one mile from the city. After the cotton crop will be gathered, Mr. Coonrad intends visiting his brother, Mr. M. Coonrad, who is a resident of Fort Wayne; also his numerous friends in and around New Haven.

Mr. Ganthier, one of Allen county's first settlers, came here about four years ago and has a fine little place. Mr. Ganthier being now about eighty years old, has his place looked after by his son, Mr. A. Ganthier.

Mr. A. F. Didier, lately from the "Old Fort," is principal of St. Joseph's Catholic school of Ennis, and in addition has a large French class. His numerous friends in Wayne will be happy to learn of his success, which in every way he deserves.

The many friends of Mrs. M. Schmucker will be happy to learn of her continued good health, and can be assured, although advanced in years, she is good for many more.

Mr. Theo. Harverd, of Maples, was here visiting Mr. Jolly the last two weeks, and before returning expressed himself as delighted with what he saw. May he and many more of our acquaintances come and reside with us in paradise.

In closing, we wish to inform our Indiana democratic friends that Texas will vote for Cleveland and Thurman, and the word doubtful we know not.

EX-FORT WAYNEITE.

Day and Week of Prayer for Young Men.

The twenty-third annual season of prayer for young men and Young Men's Christian associations will begin on the the second Lord's day in November and continue for one week. This week of prayer will be observed all over the world. Arrangements are being made to have services in the chapel of the Y. M. C. A., commencing Sabbath afternoon and each evening during the week. May we not hope that this may inaugurate a revival of God's work in the churches throughout the city. Further information will be given later.

THE JOINT DISCUSSION.

The Temple opera house will undoubtedly be crowded Thursday evening to listen to the debate between Rev. A. E. Mahin, of this city, and Dr. W. H. Boole, of Brooklyn, N. Y., on certain questions advanced by the former in an article contributed by him to the Fort Wayne Methodist on "Non-Partisan Prohibition." Both gentlemen are advocates of prohibition. The latter believes that it can be best brought about by the third party; while Rev. Mahin, who is a republican, controverts the statement, and this will be the point at issue between them.

Rev. Mahin is the presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal churches of the Fort Wayne district. He is an able and forcible speaker, but he will meet an equal in Rev. Boole, who is one of the most prominent prohibition orators of the country, and who a few weeks ago created a sensation in this city, by attacking, in a speech at the court room, the article above alluded to of Rev. Mahin.

The preliminaries for the debate have been arranged and by its terms Rev. Mahin will have the opening and closing of the discussion. The admittance to the Temple will be by ticket and a number of prominent people from other cities will be here to listen to it.

AROUND THE DEPOTS.

The Day's Budget as it is Gathered From the Railroads and Manufactories of the City.

Work in many of the manufacturing establishments of this city is expected to improve after the election.

The near approach of the election causes the political discussions among the employes of the shops to be warm and animated.

John Slater, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, who has been on the sick list since Saturday, returned to work this morning.

The clerks in the various manufacturing establishments of the city are busily engaged in getting ready for their monthly reports.

There are but few commercial men traveling on the railroads this week. Most of them are seeking their homes to take vacations until after the election.

Supt. W. H. Caniff, of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore road, has been appointed superintendent of the entire Lake Shore system with headquarters at Cleveland.

A number of persons went from this city this morning to attend the republican rally at Peru and the political clubs left in the afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock.

In one department of the Olds wheel works, in which twenty-one men are employed, twenty will vote for Cleveland and Thurman, and one will vote for Harrison and Morton.

Mr. F. H. Elliott, of Huntington, who has been in the office of the trainmaster of the Wabash at that place, has accepted a position with the company in the offices in this city.

Mr. Henry Shulz, of the Bass foundry, is off duty on account of the death of his little daughter who was so horribly burned Sunday. The bereaved father has the sympathy of every employe in the works.

Frank Druhot, a moulder in the Bass works, is being congratulated over the arrival of a handsome baby boy at his home. The little fellow has been named Allan G., and from this it is safe to say that his political education will be in the right channel.

Mr. T. F. Whittlesey has been appointed superintendent of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore road, with headquarters at Hillsdale, Mich. Mr. Whittlesey is an experienced railroader, and his appointment has given general satisfaction.

President Depew, of the New York Central road, on Friday last, when asked who would succeed Henry Monett as general passenger agent of the road, replied that the position would not be filled hastily; that Mr. Monett was a genius and that it would be hard to find a suitable man to succeed him.

The Pennsylvania people are about winding up their improvements for this year. On the entire system about $2,000,000 has been expended, mostly in building third and fourth tracks, in replacing light with heavier steel rails, and in the rebuilding of bridges on a more substantial scale.

Mr. W. H. Caniff, who has just been appointed assistant general superintendent of the Lake Shore road, has been on the Lake Shore twenty-five years, and is now forty-one years old. He has been successively night watch, telegraph operator, station agent, track master and division superintendent.

You Carry

A whole medicine chest in your pocket, with one box of Ayer's Pills. As they operate directly on the stomach and bowels, they indirectly affect every other organ of the body. When the stomach is out of order, the head is affected, digestion fails, the blood becomes impoverished, and you fall an easy victim to any prevalent disease. Miss M. E. Boyle, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., puts the whole truth in a nutshell, when she says: "I take no other medicine than Ayer's Pills. They are all that any one needs, and just splendid to save money in doctors' bills."

Here is an instance of

who lost his medicine chest, but, having at hand a bottle of Ayer's Pills, found himself fully equipped.—J. Arrison, M. D., of San José, Cal., writes:

"Some three years ago, by the merest accident, I was forced, so to speak, to prescribe Ayer's Cathartic Pills for several sick men among a party of engineers in the Sierra Nevada mountains, my medicine chest having been lost in crossing a mountain torrent. I was surprised and delighted at the action of the Pills, so much so, indeed, that I was led to a further trial of them, as well as of your Cherry Pectoral and Sarsaparilla. I have nothing but praise to offer in their favor."

John W. Brown, M. D., of Oceana, W. Va., writes: "I prescribe Ayer's Pills in my practice, and find them excellent. I urge their general use in families."

T. E. Hastings, M. D., of Baltimore, Md., writes: "That Ayer's Pills do control and cure the complaints for which they are designed, is as conclusively proven to me as anything possibly can be. They are the best cathartic and aperient within the reach of the profession."

THE INDIANA OUTLOOK

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The political outlook in Indiana is regarded in democratic circles as becoming more and more favorable as election day approaches. The fact is said to be shown in the press dispatches from that state, and also by private letters received here on the subject. A prominent government official received a letter from a friend in Indiana, who was an officer in the union army and conspicuous in Grand army circles. The following is an extract from that communication: "I presume you would be pleased to hear from the Hoosier state at this time from one who is on the ground. Our county gave Cleveland and Hendricks over 4,000 majority in 1884, and our private poll indicates a large increase over those figures. If the gains over the state in ninety-two counties are equally as large we will sink Harrison and his party out of sight in his own state. I sincerely believe we are going to carry the Hoosier state for Cleveland and the Old Roman by a large majority. This time the republicans are making a 'still hunt' after the democratic soldier vote in this state. My opinion is that we will be able to hold that vote almost to a unit. The day that Judge Thurman spoke at Fort Wayne we had nearly 500 old soldiers in our procession, and when the republicans saw the veterans in line they were greatly surprised. The republicans may try to buy the state, but we don't believe they will succeed this time."

NO COMBINE.

The Jenney Electric Light Company Standing on Its Merits.

The Indianapolis Sun says:

On Thursday articles of incorporation of the Merchants' Electric Light and Power company were filed with the secretary of state. The capital stock is placed at $100,000 and the signatures to the articles were the Fort Wayne Jenney Electric Light company, John T. Brush, Joseph P. Smith and R. T. McDonald. Mr. Brush was seen and he said the purpose of the company was to furnish incandescent lighting in Indianapolis. He said many of the business men of the city had stock in the concern. The plant, which it is understood, will be established immediately, Mr. Brush said would be large enough to furnish the entire business portion of the city with light.

For some time there have been negotiations pending at Terre Haute between the Fort Wayne Jenney and Thompson-Houston company. The latter being behind the McNeal electric railway scheme, it was thought expedient to form a consolidation with the Fort Wayne Jenney and furnish light. Mr. Brush was asked if the organization of the Merchants' company was a step toward such consolidation. He said he did not know, but had no reason to believe it was. "The Fort Wayne Jenney," said he, "has always stood on its own bottom and has never done anything in connection with the Thompson-Housten. It is prepared to furnish incandescent and arc lighting, and can do it without any connection with another company."

The Sioux Indians.

PIERRE, Dak., Oct. 30.—About 200 Sioux Indians, under White Ghost, from the lower Brule agency, passed up the Bad river yesterday, to reinforce the Standing Rock Indians in a rumored coming fight with the Crow Indians.

It is expected that Charger, with about 300 Indians, will join them at Cheyenne. The Crows are out in force, and are expected to strike the blow while the Sioux chiefs are at Washington. But they are late as the latter have returned.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The will of the late John Wentworth was admitted to probate this morning. The estate, which aggregates $1,500,000, is to be equally divided between the decedent's daughter, Roxana, and his nephew, Moses.

Chronic catarrh usually indicates a scrofulous condition of the system, and should be treated, like chronic ulcers and eruptions, through the blood. This disease has been cured, in hundreds of cases, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Price $1. Six bottles, $5.

Words of Caution to the Union Labor People.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 29, 1888.
To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

DEAR SIR:—As the majority of our voters in this district are laboring men, I think a few words of caution with regards to the Dispatch would not come amiss. Now, I am a reader of the Dispatch, which is considered the labor paper of the city, and I have always placed confidence in it; but as I read and learn I find it leading to the welfare of the republican party.

Now I am a laboring man, and believe in labor reform, but I do not believe in being bull-dozed by a few leaders. Let every man use his own sound sense and judgment and not be blindfolded by a few leaders. I would ask: "Why is it that the Dispatch does not place the name of Mr. Miner on the Union Labor ticket, as he is the Union Labor candidate for congress and not Mr. J. B. White."

Now I do not think it is doing justice to our candidate or to our party to omit the name of Mr. Miner. If it is the pleasure of some of the laboring men of this district to support Mr. White let them do so. But we would ask our leaders not to blindfold the poor, ignorant workingmen by placing the name of Mr. White on their ticket. I think it would be more honorable to those leaders to publish the correct ticket and if it is not the will of them to support Mr. Miner they can use stickers. Now I will state that I have no personal grudge against Mr. White; but he is a candidate on the republican ticket, and not on the union labor, therefore we ask to have the name of Mr. Miner on the ticket and not that of Mr. White.

Ringing Noises

In the ears, sometimes a roaring buzzing sound are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly remarkable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood. If you suffer from catarrh, try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the peculiar medicine.

THE republicans are denouncing some of their own institutions. After four more years of democratic rule there won't be a trace of the iniquitous republican reign.

CHRIS. WENZ, the 16-year-old son of John Wenz, who keeps a grocery in Sacramento, Ga., is a sleep-walker. The young man sleeps over his father's store. The other night he went to bed early. About 11 o'clock he jumped out of bed and, running to an open window, he leaped through it, and in less time than he could say so landed in the sandy street. The leap woke him up. Aside from a few slight bruises, the boy was uninjured. Fortunately, he made a good spring and landed in the sand instead of on the sidewalk.

A fine constitution may be ruined by simple neglect. Many bodily ills result from habitual constipation. There is no medicine equal to Ayer's Pills for restoring the system to natural and healthy action.

IN MEMORY OF MISS LOTTIE LEIB

In loving memory of Miss Lottie Leib, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leib, whose death occurred in this city, last week, aged twenty-nine years:

Oh! parents, your hearts seem breaking—
Lottie sleeps the sleep that knows no waking.
Her life was like a summer's rose—
How you will miss her, God only knows.

'Twas God that gave you the treasure,
And you loved her, oh! so well,
But the angels came and took her
To a better world to dwell.

Lottie, though sadly we miss thee,
When we gaze on thy vacant chair,
We must try to live so we will meet thee,
In that beautiful home over there.

You have gone a little sooner—
It must be for the best—
So we bow our head in submission,
For we know you are at rest.

—MRS. J. M. S.

NOT long ago the carp were taken out of the famous basin of Fontainebleau, in France, in order that the basin might be cleaned. A great fete has been arranged to celebrate the return of the fish. Silver rings are to be put in their noses and music and other ceremonies enough to frighten the poor fish to death are to accompany the putting of the fish back into the basin. It is intimated that enterprising men from Paris are already speculating on the chances of fishing in the basin for rings, however, and not for the carp.

THE annual death rate of London, it appears, is about twenty in one thousand, and that of New York about twenty-six in one thousand. The population of New York is given as 1,439,037, and of London as 4,149,533. The total number of deaths in New York in 1886 was 37,351, and in London 82,545. If New York had the same population as London, and the death rate from the different diseases was the same as at present exists, the number of deaths in New York would amount to 107,705, or 25,160 in excess of those in London.

APROPOS to the recent commutation of Chiara Cignarale's sentence, the New York Sun publishes an interview with Roscoe Conkling at the time the verdict was rendered many months ago. In the course of this interview, which, in accordance with Mr. Conkling's wishes, has been suppressed lest "it might have some influence in deciding Cignarale's fate," the eminent jurist said: "At no time should a woman's life be legally put in danger. Our civilization is surely too far advanced to permit the killing of a woman by process of law. It is bad enough, God knows, to hang a man. A woman's life life should never be taken, even though she has been found guilty of the awful crime of murder. The hastening to eternal judgment of a woman's soul by order of a civilized judge, in a civilized court of a civilized country, is a blot upon the manhood of this nation."

ALTHOUGH rains have been frequent this season and the ground is moist, extensive forest fires are reported in several places in Michigan. These fires are of more frequent occurrence and do more damage every year. At a recent meeting of the American Lumbermen's Association it was stated that more valuable trees were annually destroyed by fires than were cut and sent to market. Many of these fires are started by sparks from locomotives and from the smoke-stacks of steamers that penetrate the rivers in the lumber regions. Many more are kindled by sparks issuing from chimneys of steam sawmills. There are generally large collections of sawdust, shavings, bark, and small fragments of sawed lumber. As there is ordinarily no market for any of them they are allowed to accumulate in vast quantities. A fire started in them is almost certain to spread and do immense damage. Many more fires are started by hunters, amateur fishermen, excursionists, and persons who are camping in the woods for pleasure. They build fires in the woods for the purpose of cooking their food or for affording light at night, and they are at no pains to extinguish them when they move to a new place. These fires are often built by the side of a large stump, which continues to burn for weeks. The first high wind that occurs may carry sparks into the dry pine needles in the vicinity, and as a result a great forest will be in flames. Not a few fires are started by sportsmen who use matches for lighting cigars and then throw them among dry leaves. Experiments in European countries and in several of the provinces of Canada show that it is comparatively easy to prevent the starting or spread of fires in a forest. The owners of woodlands are not allowed to let dry branches accumulate on the ground or to permit fires to be built in them. Lumbermen and others who cut down trees for the purpose of obtaining timber or fuel are required to remove the branches or to burn them when the ground is covered with snow. Building open fires in the forest is an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment. Local inspectors of forests are appointed to see that the laws are enforced.

The revival meetings of Evangelists Updike and Hawes continue to call forth the most thoughtful and serious consideration of the best as well as the worst classes. No better sign can be given that the Christian church revival is the result of the spirit of God speaking through the truth by these men of God. Over one hundred have taken their stand for Christ already and the young men that confessed Christ last night and the scores of others who are attending night after night with serious attention, has put fresh courage in the workers, especially in the hearts of the praying mothers of our city. God grant that the young men of Fort Wayne may make a grand rally around the banner of Jesus Christ to-night. Services at 2:30 and 7:30 each day.

Vicar General Brammer proposes to replace the cement walk leading to Calhoun street with stone, and marble will replace the board floor in the Cathedral vestibule.

An amusing and instructive incident of the republican meeting at Hoagland, last night, is told by the republicans. Captain White and others spoke. Some republican proposed three cheers for Harrison and in it the speakers joined, but the response was awfully feeble. Then some democrat proposed three cheers for Cleveland and the hearty response almost raised the roof of the building. Thus run the "grand republican rallies."

There is to be a great democratic rally at Angola to-morrow night in honor of Senator Voorhees and the Thurman club, of this city, will escort the speaker. At Decatur Thursday night occurs another rally and it will be a great affair. The democrats of this city are under obligations to both towns and Chairman Hamilton is desirous that the clubs of this city attend both rallies as largely as possible. Reduced rates and extra inducements are offered.

The police commissioners met yesterday, Mayor Muhler presiding. They sustained the charges preferred by Captain Diehl against Officer Sheridan and the latter was discharged from the police force. The officer was found guilty of drunkenness and if this rule prevails without favoritism we will have a number of police changes. It would be a public blessing to enforce sobriety anyway, and no where is it needed more than on the police force. This does not apply to police officers who do not drink, and to their credit, be it said, we have a few of them.

MONROEVILLE.

An Interesting Budget of News From Our Busy Neighbor.

Hog cholera still prevails.

New corn is rapidly coming into market.

Politics will soon be a thing of the past and the average politician will resume his avocation.

Smith & Wagner are building a farm residence for D. A. Row.

Hursh Kleckler, son of 'Squire Kleckler, of Adams county, died, last Thursday, of consumption, at the age of twenty-two years, His remains were interred in the cemetery, near Clark's chapel, last Friday. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker Edwards, of this place.

J. E. Graham spoke to a fair crowd, yesterday afternoon, at the democratic headquarters.

J. W. Jones, the democratic candidate for county commissioner, is making a thorough and lively canvass of the county and is meeting with hosts of friends everywhere. He is every inch a gentleman and can not fail to win the esteem and confidence of those whom he may chance to meet. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Jones and can truthfully say that no more capable man can be selected to fill the responsible office to which he aspires. Mr. Jones taught school for a number of years, was a justice of the peace of Monroe township, to which he served with credit. He then moved on his farm in Jackson township and was elected trustee of said township, which office he served with honor for four years. Jackson township by right deserves the honor of placing the next county commissioner of the First district, as it has never been represented in the county legislature.

Seymour Jones and Miss Annie Neisweitz, both of this place, were married by Rev. Bowen, last week. Mr. Jones is a brother of J. W. Jones, democratic candidate for commissioner of the First district.

Mrs. Kathrina Doyle, wife of John Doyle, of this place, died of uraenie at her home last Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle once lived in Fort Wayne.

Louis May will soon be domiciled in his pleasant new brick residence near the Catholic church.

John Friedline, who had his leg amputated on account of an accident which happened him while descending the steps of the Columbus excursion train at this place some time ago, is able to be out on his crutches.

Mr. M. Franke, the pleasant and accommodating trustee of Madison township, will hold his first township teachers'institute at Hoagland, November 17. A full program is made out, and we vouch that they will have a good and profitable time.

Monroeville is booming as a grain market and the cereal is coming into town from a great distance.

Preparations are being made for the grand democratic rally of the season, which is to take place next Saturday evening. The committee has not yet decided as to the speakers, but there is assurances that there will be good orators present.

Monroeville produces more "statesmen" than any other town of its size and soon every stump, barrel and store box will hold up one of them, eagerly explaining to the intelligent voter how "we'll go to the dickens if the other fellows get the office."

Yesterday was prohibition day in Monroeville. Mrs. St. John was advertised to be the main card, but she failed to appear. Consequently a large crowd assembled at the democratic headquarters to hear E. G. Coverdale, the great Decatur reformer, on the prohibition question.

M. B. Knouse returned from LaPorte, Ind., where he had been attending an eight-week term of the Horological institute.

The trio who endeavored to drift politics into private affairs are as cunning as pet coons. Their scheme is discovered and now their presence is obscured.

It is reported that the rough elements that participated in the riot during the last republican rally at this place, came by request to do "up" the "boys" of Monroeville. We do not believe that any of our people sent any such invitation, as one of the parties in question claims to be an independent, although he advocates republicanism under an independent fleece. However, it turned up that the "rough elements" were done "by."

The new Catholic church is about completed, and the grand fair commences without fail, on Monday, November 12, and is to continue until the following Monday. The Pittsburg road will give excursion rates to accommodate those who are to come here from the east and west. The Catholic people extends a hearty invitation to their many friends to be present, and nothing will be left undone to make it pleasant and agreeable. Arrangements have been made whereby warm meals will be served at all times in the main building. There is plenty of fun left in store for both young and old, and no one should fail to attend. A contest will take place each evening, in which Fort Wayne, Decatur, Payne and Monroeville parties will be interested. The most excited one will be the voting of a fine ladies' gold watch to the most popular young lady of the above named places. Over 1,500 fair tickets have already been sold, and the present indications are that it will be the grandest social affair of the season.

A SAD DEATH.

Little Lizzie Schulz Dies as a Result of Her Injuries.

Miss Lizzie Schulz, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schulz, of Gay street, who was so horribly burned Sunday, the particulars of which were published in yesterday's SENTINEL, died last night about 9 o'clock, as a result of her injuries.

The child was a terrible sufferer, her body in many places having been burned to a crisp. Her fright and sufferings brought on brain fever and the ravings of the little one were heart rending to hear, so that death really came a welcome visitor in her case. The bereaved family have the sympathies of a wide circle of friends in their sad affliction.

Judge Edward O'Rourke issued second naturalization papers to eighty persons last night, while Dr. Loag and his assistants were deluged by applicants for first papers.

Henry Meyer, a Pleasant township farmer, died yesterday, aged sixty-five years. He was an old bachelor and will be buried from the residence of his brother, Christian Meyer, in Wayne township, Thursday afternoon.

The prohibitionists are making preparations for a big meeting next Monday evening at the Masonic Temple. Helen Gougar will be the speaker.

It is amusing to see people with their face drawn as if they had swallowed a feather and it was tickling their lungs, and they would be happy if they could only sneeze. Now, there is no need of "making faces." A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will draw your face back into a smile.

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceretion sets in, the spongy bones are attacked and frequently entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only cure.

Furniture

By the Acre!

That is a somewhat peculiar way of putting it. Furniture is not usually sold by the acre. Neither do we sell it that way. We only want to impress upon you the very extensive character of our establishment. In these days, when furniture is made in three or four different woods and finishes, it requires an acre lot to enable a dealer to present to the public a complete assortment in whatever wood the purchaser may chance to prefer.

So we say we have three acres of furniture to show you; one acre of floor surface at Fort Wayne, one acre at Lafayette, and one acre at Terre Haute. This is more than double the space given to the furniture trade by any other firm in the state.

But what is more important still for you is, that

We sell only the most carefully made goods.

We always have the newest and most desirable styles.

We permit no misrepresentation of goods.

We have but one price, but that is always below any of our competitors.

We guarantee every article sold to be free from any faults of manufacture.

We ship all bills of goods amounting to $25 and upwards, to any town within fifty miles of Fort Wayne, free of all freight charges.

We are also the largest retailers in the state of Indiana, of

SECRETARY BAYARD!

He Sends a Man-of-War to Hayti for the Protection of American Citizens.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The seizure of the American steamer Haytian Republic has become an international episode, as will be seen by the following letter from Secretary of State Bayard:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.

Messrs. Lord & Austin, New York City:

GENTS:—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th, in which you inform the department of the the seizure of the American steamship Haytian Republic, at St. Marie, and request that, in view of the serious state of affairs in Hayti at the present time and of the jeopardy in which the lives and property of Americans are now placed, that a man-of-war be sent thither immediately.

The department has received information of similar purport from the United States minister at Port-Au-Prince, and a reply has instructed him to protest instantly against the action of the Haytian authorities and has informed him that a man of war will be ordered to Haytian waters as soon as possible. I am, gentleman, your obedient servant.

T. F. BAYARD.

The navy department has been requested by the secretary of state to send a man-of-war to Hayti to look after the American interests there, which appear to be jeopardized by the seizure of the American steamer Haytian Republic, at St. Marie, and other disturbing events at Port-au-Prince, At present all the vessels of the north Atlantic station are laid up in the navy yards for repairs, except the Boston, which is now at some Central American port beyond the reach of telegraph. Efforts will be made to communicate with her and it is expected that the vessel will reach Hayti in a few days.

RIDING ON A PASS.

A Gratuitous Passenger Recovers for Injuries Sustained on a Railroad.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 30.—In the court of appeals, one of Judge Ramsey's opinions yesterday affirms the judgment in the case of Leona Bryan vs. the Missouri Pacific railway company, awarding the plaintiff damages for injuries sustained on the road while riding on a pass. One of the conditions of the pass was that the person using it assumed all risk of accidents. The court instructed the jury that, even though they might believe that the plaintiff was a gratuitous passenger, such fact did not affect the issues in the case and was no defense.

MINISTER WEST.

The Cabinet Held a Consultation To-day—Phelps' Communication.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—United States Minister Phelps has returned to London from Hatfield house, where he has been in consultation with Lord Salisbury, presumably respecting the letter of Minister Sackville West. The department of state has received cablegrams from him fully explaining the situation, which will be laid before the cabinet meeting to-day. For the present, the information touching the nature of Minister Phelps' communication is withheld.

Wanted Them to Use Dynamite.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 30.—An unknown man, claiming to be from Chicago, was among the strikers at the spike mill of Dilworth, Porter & Co., on the southside yesterday, endeavoring to influence them to use dynamite to gain their aims. The strikers, however, would give him no encouragement but told him they would win the strike by peaceable means or not at all.

Will Have Two Parades.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—The democrats and republicans of this city have both arranged for political demonstrations and parades Saturday evening, and Mayor Denny has concluded not to issue his proclamation forbidding these counter demonstrations, as he had intended to do.

Not Guilty.

CHICAGO, Oct, 30—Justice Hamburger this morning discharged the alleged dynamite conspirators, Kaseberg, Thompson, Nicholson and Magee, who were charged with placing dynamite on the street car tracks during the strike. The justice held that the evidence did not warrant him in holding the men.

KILLED BY THE MARSHAL.

HUNTINGTON, Oct. 30.—Yesterday afternoon Arthur Watkins, better known as "Windy" Watkins, assaulted and badly injured Edgar Barrick. The row occurred at the saloon formerly owned by Gus Nellis, on Jefferson street. Watkins was arrested and taken to the office of the mayor, and while awaiting trial, Marshal Rosebrough went out to summon witnesses. While he was gone, Watkins stepped out of the mayor's office, and giving the man in whose charge he was, the slip, took leg bail and ran westward on Market street. Rosebrough was at once notified of his escape, and jumping into a buggy, accompanied by John Freese, gave chase. They sighted the fugitive near the residence of Jacob Allis, on Matilda street, and Rosebrough called upon him to surrender. Rosebrough then got out of the buggy and gave chase, firing three shots at Watkins. At this point, the marshal's story of the tragedy is that Watkins came up to him threatening to assault him, and swearing he could not be arrested. The marshal demanded his surrender, but Watkins rushed towards him, and to save himself, Rosebrough, after warning, fired his revolver point blank. The shot was a fatal one, and Watkins fell to the earth and almost instantly expired.

The shooting took place at the lot of W. H. Smith, the drayman, on Tipton street. John Freese, Sam Runkle and John Howe witnessed the affair, and say that Watkin's had his revolver drawn and was threatening Rosebrough's life, and that Rosebrough shot not an instant too soon. The bullet struck Watkins in the mouth, and he fell forward on his face. Rosebrough came down town at once and placed himself at the disposal of the officers

The dead man is a son of David Watkins, a very respectable man of Lagro, and for many years a boatman on the Wabash and Erie canal.

Fatally Injured by the Cars.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Oct. 30.—Lewis Stillwell, aged eighteen, was fatally injured by a passenger train on the J., M. & I., four miles south of here, last evening, while trying to cross the track.

Ex-Governor St. John and Miss Helen Gougar will speak at Indianapolis to-morrow evening.

A FATAL PLUNGE!

An Immense Iron Bridge Falls Into the River and Several Men Are Killed and Injured.

DUQUOIN, Ill., Oct. 30.—Yesterday afternoon, near Blairsville, about sixteen miles from here, a gang of men were repairing an iron truss bridge. An order was given one man to loosen a girder a fraction of an inch. The girder was one of the main supports and one turn of the wrench swung the bridge out of plumb, and without a moment's warning the vast mass dropped into the water, fifty-feet below. Wm. Thompson was instantly killed and Arthur McRea, James Campbell, D. Maffield, John Edmunds and Theodore Harris were fatally injured. W. H. McRea, Thomas Robinson, Miles Harris, Frank Leech and an unknown man were seriously injured. The bridge was the largest one of the kind in the state, 170 feet in clear.

COLONIZING VOTERS.

Pittsburg Negroes to be Sent to Indiana to Vote for Harrison.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 30.—For the past few days emissaries of the republican central committee have been busily engaged in collecting negroes to send to the Indiana natural gas fields to vote for Harrison November 6. It is known that a large number of these negro repeaters will be sent to the Hoosier state this week. But this scheme of the republican managers will not be successful, as all negroes going from here will be spotted, and upon attempting to vote will find themselves in serious trouble.

Mrs. David Davis Married.

RALEIGH, S. C., Oct. 30.—Wharton J. Green, ex-congressman from the Third North Carolina district, and Mrs. Addie E. A REVOLTING STORY

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Bonny river, Africa, gives a revolting story of savage atrocities and cannibalism. The Okrikan tribe, in revenge for some injury, invited a party of Ogonis to a friendly palaver, and then entrapped and massacred them.

A cannibal festival of the most horrible and indescribable character followed. Then an attack was made upon the undefended villages, and the most barbarous outrages were committed. It is estimated that over one hundred and fifty persons, including women and children, were killed and eaten.

THE BANDANA WAVES

At Wheeling, W. Va., To-day, for Thurman is There.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 30.—To-day was a democratic day in this city and the fact was first made manifest by the unfurling of bandana streamers from stores and residences in all parts of the town. The big cannon on the hill above the city waked many early in the morning and kept up regular cannonading during the whole day. The early trains brought people in from neighboring places in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, uniformed clubs being present from Pittsburg, Allegheny City, Steubenville, Martins Ferry, Moundsville, Bellaire and many other points, besides a number of local organizations.

The crowds lined the streets on which the procession had been advertised to move and gave hearty greeting to the various clubs, and cheered lustily at the sight of Judge Thurman. It took forty-five minutes for the procession to pass a given point.

This afternoon the state orators are holding forth on stands in the open air. To-night Judge Thurman will speak in the rink, whi e a torchlight procession will parade the streets.

THREE KILLED!

And Several Injured by the Explosion of a Tug on the Lakes.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30.—The tug W. A. Lawrence, exploded her boiler while cruising in the lake off the north point at 2:30 this morning, killing Capt. John Sullivan, Engineer John Sullivan, a cousin of the captain, Fireman Edward Sullivan and a line man named Thomas Hanley. The boat was blown to pieces.

Frank McGoman, the cook, and Thomas Dooley, a chance visitor on the tug, were picked up from among the floating debris by the crew of the tug Merrill, which happened to be close by. Both were severely bruised and cut.

The men who lost their lives were all residents of this city. The tug was owned by John McCoy and James Banner and was valued at $4,500. It was comparatively new, but had an old boiler and engine.

A Big Fire.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—The great fire at Huenfeld, near Cassel, continues to spread. Three hundred houses, including public buildings, have been consumed. A force of military and thirty fire brigades from adjacent places are endeavoring to get control of the flames.

Failure.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Samuel Loewenstein, a manufacturer of gents' wear and merchandise, at 555 Broadway, assigned to-day to Joseph Bierhoff, no preference being given.

Jacob Falk, of Bluffton, came to the city to-day with the avowed purpose of killing his wife, Rachel Falk, who ran away from him and came to the home of his son-in-law, Edward Brown, in this city. Falk has threatened every one who proposed to interfere with him and on a warrant sworn out by his wife was arrested and taken before Justice France. He will be held to keep the peace and his wife will apply for a divorce.

The public will be glad to learn that the Western Union Telegraph company will be enabled to serve bulletins on the coming election from a more convenient location than their office at the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad depot. Manager Perry has arranged with Supt. W. W. Worthington for the use of the railroad wire of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad between Cincinnati and Fort Wayne, by connecting temporarily a wire from Supt. Worthington's office, on the north side, to a point over in the city to complete the circuit. Manager Perry says this wire will be made to form a circuit with Indianapolis and Cincinnati and bulletins will be handled in first-class order.

INDIANA is all right.

DOWN with monopolies.

THE monopolists are on the run!

TRUSTS are private schemes to rob the public.

GIVE us four years more of honest government.

THE betting all over the country is in favor of Cleveland.

ONLY seven days until the re-election of Grover Cleveland.

"UNNECESSARY taxation is unjust taxation."—Grover Cleveland.

NOW, BOYS, for a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull together.

INDIANA is against free whisky, Chinese immigration, and monopoly taxes.

THE bloody shirt will receive a few more shakes this week, and then will be put away forever.

A certain bold Briton named West,
Tried to Burchardize the Prest.,
But sturdy Old Grover
Looked the fellow over
And told him to pull down his vest.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has demonstrated that the country is safe in his hands. Many a sensible man will vote to let well enough alone.

NEW YORK, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana and California are safe. Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota are the doubtful states.

THE "free trade scare" has failed to scare, and the John Bull trick has fooled nobody. Now what will the republicans try next?

DUDLEY says Indiana can not be bought. We don't think it can, and therefore we are very sure its electoral vote will be cast for Cleveland.

BEN HARRISON, in his Saturday night speech, spoke very pathetically of the prospect that he would continue to be "a private citizen of Indianapolis."

PUTTING hides on the free list, says a high tariffite in the Boston Advertiser, did not reduce their price. If this is true, why should putting wool on the free list reduce its price?

SOME republicans are openly offering to trade everything for a vote for Captain White. They know the state is lost and are making an effort to seize something. The death struggle will not avail. The sweep will be complete.

CONGRESSMAN WHITE spoke out at Dutch Ridge in this county, the other night and among his hearers was Mr. Adam Harkey, a well known farmer. Mr. Harkey listened to Mr. White's speech and at once proceeded to his home where he cut down a sugar pole erected in honor of Captain White. He is not pleased with the captain's advocacy of high taxes, and is not a little surprised at the change in Captain White's former liberal views.

THIS is the last week of the campaign. Good work has been done thus far and success is as certain as we can wish for. Grover Cleveland will be re-elected and the tax reform movement will not cease until taxes are reduced. The issue can be strengthened by sending a reformer to congress from this Twelfth district in place of a man who votes as the republican leaders instruct him. The fight must be made all along the line. A tax reform president and a tax reform congress will reduce the war taxes.

MR. C. G. CONN, of Elkhart, has been chosen as the democratic candidate for joint representative for the counties of Elkhart, Noble and DeKalb. Mr. Conn is well known and very popular all over Northern Indiana.

MR. CHARLES MCVEAGH, of Pennsylvania, son of Hon. Wayne McVeagh, attorney general in President Hayes' cabinet, is on the stump for Cleveland and Thurman. Mr. McVeagh is a grandson of General Simon Cameron, and a nephew of United States Senator Don Cameron.

WE are glad to learn that the prospects are very bright for the election of Hon. A. N. Martin to congress, in the Eleventh district. Mr. Martin is a democrat from away back. Is a man of great ability and wonderful energy. He went through the war as a private soldier, and has hosts of friends among the soldiers. He will make a hard-working and useful congressman.

MEMBERS of both political parties, in this city, are to be congratulated upon the good, neighborly feeling with which the campaign has been conducted in Fort Wayne. While in some cities in the state much bitterness has been engendered, threatening serious consequences in the next few days, here no trouble is apprehended and the election of a week from to-day bids fair to pass over without an unpleasant incident. This is as it should be.

WHAT is tariff? A tax put upon imported articles in order that such goods shall be manufactured in America. The object of so doing? The protection of those who have invested or will invest their money in manufacturing. The result? Protection to the manufacturer and an additional charge to every man, woman and child who purchase their articles. But it is claimed that the tariff increases the wages of the American mechanic. Is this true? It might do so if there was a tariff on the importation of workers from abroad; but as such is not the case, it does not. There are more than enough foreigners landed on our shores to supply the increased demand for workers. What protection does the tariff give an idle workman? Every mechanic can ask himself this question.

MR. LEVI P. MORTON, the republican candidate for vice president, is head of the London banking firm of Morton, Rose & Co., which is managing the financial end of the salt trust or "union" which has just been organized. The scheme includes nothing less than the combination of all the salt-producing industries of the world into one gigantic corporation for the purpose of increasing and maintaining the price of this staple necessary of life at figures which, according to the prospectus, will pay the investors at least 20 per cent. dividends per annum. It is not strange that all the great trusts, including S. Bash & Co., of this city, are supporting the republican ticket when the nominee for vice president is himself identified with a scheme to form one of the most gigantic trusts on earth.

BOTH political parties have been arranging for a parade at Indianapolis Saturday next and great expectations were entertained as to the result. A hitch comes, however, in the shape of an intimation from Mayor Denny that no parades will be permitted. He says: "I shall first exert every influence to secure a compromise agreement between Harding and Taggart by which they will use the streets on another and separate nights, I care not when; but if this cannot be accomplished by to-day then I shall issue a proclamation denying to either party the use of the streets on the night in question and call on the police authorities to enforce the order. The comment that may be occasioned by this announcement I care nothing about; as the head of the city government I have only the safety of the people to consider." The democrats say that Denny is but a tool of the republicans, who realize their weakness and want to avoid a comparison. The Indianapolis Sentinel says the democratic parade will come off as advertised.

A LESSON ON PROTECTION.

The republicans, having been driven from the tariff issue, are resorting to every trick known to the political trade, but the people are seeking facts not fancies.

Perhaps this lesson on protection will interest workingmen:

In the city of Pittsburg, it is reported, there are over seventy millionaires, made such by a protective tariff.

Now, that is well enough, as far as it goes. We are not sorry that seventy gentlemen have all the money they want and to spare, and only wish the number might be multiplied by ten or 100.

But here's the rub; In that same city there are something like 30,000 wage earners, with muscle, brains, good health and all the apparatus necessary to getting a livelihood, who are idle.

Now, the republicans tell us that protection is a blessing, and we admit it so far as these millionaires are concerned. But won't you kindly tell us what share of protection has fallen to the lot of these 30,000 idle men and their families?

THE REPUBLICAN TRADING TRICKS.

The republicans are organizing into trading cliques and propose to practice every sharp device.

One of their schemes is to ostensibly trade Harrison for a vote for Mr. White, or some county commissioner. They tell you, "We will strike Harrison's name from our ticket and substitute Cleveland if you will do likewise for some minor office."

No man, of course, votes directly for Cleveland or Harrison, and it would not matter if their names were not on the ticket at all. We vote for the presidential electors and the electors receiving the most votes will convene as an electoral college on the second Monday in January, and choose the president and vice-president in accordance with their party dictates.

The mere substitution of Cleveland's name for Harrison would not avail an atom, but the changing of any other name on the ticket would avail, for we vote for them directly.

Democrats will do well to be alert to all republican sophistries and give them a dose of their own medicine, if it is such a good thing.

The Other Side.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

An article in this morning's Gazette signed "Sober Sam" strikes me just where I live. He says, "If I come to your city with an empty stomach, coat out at the elbows and no money in my pocket, I may see in your stores and groceries an abundant supply of all things that I need, but there will be no business transaction between us." He forgets that it has been said that bread is the staff of life and whisky life itself. So say I, give us plenty of free whisky and we want no bread. That is why I am going to vote for Harrison and free whisky. Hurrah! for Harrison and free whisky and rum blossomed noses. I am a laboring (?) man and spend my money at saloons, when I have any, and the more whisky I can get for my money the better I like it. I am a member of the Tip-pe-cum-too club and every mother's-son-of-us will vote for Harrison and free whisky.

A Fort Wayne Colony in Texas.

ENNIS, TEXAS, Oct. 27, 1888.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL:

Thinking it will interest some of the numerous readers of THE SENTINEL, I am induced to note a little colony from and about Fort Wayne, who are enjoying the natural advantages of being residents of this part of the Lone Star state.

Mr. C. M. Joly, formerly of Maples, and trustee of Jefferson township for several terms, and well known in Fort Wayne, having been a resident of Allen county for nearly forty years, has a place he can well be proud of; 200 acres of prairie land, most of it in cultivation; also an orchard stocked with fruit trees of every variety. His peach crop this year from trees four years old, amounted to upward of 850 bushels, all choice fruit. He or his family have not known illness since their coming to "Eden," as he calls this country, and are doing well.

Mr. Peter Coonrad, of six miles east of Fort Wayne, who came here four years ago, is a neighbor of Mr. Joly's; is doing well, having a beautiful farm out one mile from the city. After the cotton crop will be gathered, Mr. Coonrad intends visiting his brother, Mr. M. Coonrad, who is a resident of Fort Wayne; also his numerous friends in and around New Haven.

Mr. Ganthier, one of Allen county's first settlers, came here about four years ago and has a fine little place. Mr. Ganthier being now about eighty years old, has his place looked after by his son, Mr. A. Ganthier.

Mr. A. F. Didier, lately from the "Old Fort," is principal of St. Joseph's Catholic school of Ennis, and in addition has a large French class. His numerous friends in Wayne will be happy to learn of his success, which in every way he deserves.

The many friends of Mrs. M. Schmucker will be happy to learn of her continued good health, and can be assured, although advanced in years, she is good for many more.

Mr. Theo. Harverd, of Maples, was here visiting Mr. Jolly the last two weeks, and before returning expressed himself as delighted with what he saw. May he and many more of our acquaintances come and reside with us in paradise.

In closing, we wish to inform our Indiana democratic friends that Texas will vote for Cleveland and Thurman, and the word doubtful we know not.

EX-FORT WAYNEITE.

Day and Week of Prayer for Young Men.

The twenty-third annual season of prayer for young men and Young Men's Christian associations will begin on the the second Lord's day in November and continue for one week. This week of prayer will be observed all over the world. Arrangements are being made to have services in the chapel of the Y. M. C. A., commencing Sabbath afternoon and each evening during the week. May we not hope that this may inaugurate a revival of God's work in the churches throughout the city. Further information will be given later.

THE JOINT DISCUSSION.

The Temple opera house will undoubtedly be crowded Thursday evening to listen to the debate between Rev. A. E. Mahin, of this city, and Dr. W. H. Boole, of Brooklyn, N. Y., on certain questions advanced by the former in an article contributed by him to the Fort Wayne Methodist on "Non-Partisan Prohibition." Both gentlemen are advocates of prohibition. The latter believes that it can be best brought about by the third party, while Rev. Mahin, who is a republican, controverts the statement, and this will be the point at issue between them.

Rev. Mahin is the presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal churches of the Fort Wayne district. He is an able and forcible speaker, but he will meet an equal in Rev. Boole, who is one of the most prominent prohibition orators of the country, and who a few weeks ago created a sensation in this city, by attacking, in a speech at the court room, the article above alluded to of Rev. Mahin.

The preliminaries for the debate have been arranged and by its terms Rev. Mahin will have the opening and closing of the discussion. The admittance to the Temple will be by ticket and a number of prominent people from other cities will be here to listen to it.

AROUND THE DEPOTS.

The Day's Budget as it is Gathered From the Railroads and Manufactories of the City.

Work in many of the manufacturing establishments of this city is expected to improve after the election.

The near approach of the election causes the political discussions among the employes of the shops to be warm and animated.

John Slater, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, who has been on the sick list since Saturday, returned to work this morning.

The clerks in the various manufacturing establishments of the city are busily engaged in getting ready for their monthly reports.

There are but few commercial men traveling on the railroads this week. Most of them are seeking their homes to take vacations until after the election.

Supt. W. H. Caniff, of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore road, has been appointed superintendent of the entire Lake Shore system with headquarters at Cleveland.

A number of persons went from this city this morning to attend the republican rally at Peru and the political clubs left in the afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock.

In one department of the Olds wheel works, in which twenty-one men are employed, twenty will vote for Cleveland and Thurman, and one will vote for Harrison and Morton.

Mr. F. H. Elliott, of Huntington, who has been in the office of the trainmaster of the Wabash at that place, has accepted a position with the company in the offices in this city.

Mr. Henry Shulz, of the Bass foundry, is off duty on account of the death of his little daughter who was so horribly burned Sunday. The bereaved father has the sympathy of every employe in the works.

Frank Druliot, a moulder in the Bass works, is being congratulated over the arrival of a handsome baby boy at his home. The little fellow has been named Allan G., and from this it is safe to say that his political education will be in the right channel.

Mr. T. F. Whittlesey has been appointed superintendent of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore road, with headquarters at Hillsdale, Mich. Mr. Whittlesey is an experienced railroader, and his appointment has given general satisfaction.

President Depew, of the New York Central road, on Friday last, when asked who would succeed Henry Monett as general passenger agent of the road, replied that the position would not be filled hastily; that Mr. Monett was a genius and that it would be hard to find a suitable man to succeed him.

The Pennsylvania people are about winding up their improvements for this year. On the entire system about $2,000,000 has been expended, mostly in building third and fourth tracks, in replacing light with heavier steel rails, and in the rebuilding of bridges on a more substantial scale.

Mr. W. H. Caniff, who has just been appointed assistant general superintendent of the Lake Shore road, has been on the Lake Shore twenty-five years, and is now forty-one years old. He has been successively night watch, telegraph operator, station agent, track master and division superintendent.

You Carry

A whole medicine chest in your pocket, with one box of Ayer's Pills. As they operate directly on the stomach and bowels, they indirectly affect every other organ of the body. When the stomach is out of order, the head is affected, digestion fails, the blood becomes impoverished, and you fall an easy victim to any prevalent disease. Miss M. R. Boyle, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., puts the whole truth in a nutshell, when she says: "I take no other medicine than Ayer's Pills. They are all that any one needs, and just splendid to save money in doctors' bills."

Here is an instance of

who lost his medicine chest, but, having at hand a bottle of Ayer's Pills, found himself fully equipped.—J. Arrison, M. D., of San José, Cal., writes:

"Some three years ago, by the merest accident, I was forced, so to speak, to prescribe Ayer's Cathartic Pills for several sick men among a party of engineers in the Sierra Nevada mountains, my medicine chest having been lost in crossing a mountain torrent. I was surprised and delighted at the action of the Pills, so much so, indeed, that I was led to a further trial of them, as well as of your Cherry Pectoral and Sarsaparilla. I have nothing but praise to offer in their favor."

John W. Brown, M. D., of Oceana, W. Va., writes: "I prescribe Ayer's Pills in my practice, and find them excellent. I urge their general use in families."

T. E. Hastings, M. D., of Baltimore, Md., writes: "That Ayer's Pills do control and cure the complaints for which they are designed, is as conclusively proven to me as anything possibly can be. They are the best cathartic and aperient within the reach of the profession."

THE INDIANA OUTLOOK.

More Favorable as Election Day Approaches—Republicans Can't Buy the State.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The political outlook in Indiana is regarded in democratic circles as becoming more and more favorable as election day approaches. The fact is said to be shown in the press dispatches from that state, and also by private letters received here on the subject. A prominent government official received a letter from a friend in Indiana, who was an officer in the union army and conspicuous in Grand army circles. The following is an extract from that communication: "I presume you would be pleased to hear from the Hoosier state at this time from one who is on the ground. Our county gave Cleveland and Hendricks over 4,000 majority in 1884, and our private poll indicates a large increase over those figures. If the gains over the state in ninety-two counties are equally as large we will sink Harrison and his party out of sight in his own state. I sincerely believe we are going to carry the Hoosier state for Cleveland and the Old Roman by a large majority. This time the republicans are making a 'still hunt' after the democratic soldier vote in this state. My opinion is that we will be able to hold that vote almost to a unit. The day that Judge Thurman spoke at Fort Wayne we had nearly 500 old soldiers in our procession, and when the republicans saw the veterans in line they were greatly surprised. The republicans may try to buy the state, but we don't believe they will succeed this time."

NO COMBINE.

The Jenney Electric Light Company Standing on Its Merits.

The Indianapolis Sun says:

On Thursday articles of incorporation of the Merchants' Electric Light and Power company were filed with the secretary of state. The capital stock is placed at $100,000 and the signatures to the articles were the Fort Wayne Jenney Electric Light company, John T. Brush, Joseph P. Smith and R. T. McDonald. Mr. Brush was seen and he said the purpose of the company was to furnish incandescent lighting in Indianapolis. He said many of the business men of the city had stock in the concern. The plant, which it is understood, will be established immediately, Mr. Brush said would be large enough to furnish the entire business portion of the city with light.

For some time there have been negotiations pending at Terre Haute between the Fort Wayne Jenney and Thompson-Houston company. The latter being behind the McNeal electric railway scheme, it was thought expedient to form a consolidation with the Fort Wayne Jenney and furnish light. Mr. Brush was asked if the organization of the Merchants' company was a step toward such consolidation. He said he did not know, but had no reason to believe it was. "The Fort Wayne Jenney," said he, "has always stood on its own bottom and has never done anything in connection with the Thompson-Housten. It is prepared to furnish incandescent and arc lighting, and can do it without any connection with another company."

The Sioux Indians.

PIERRE, Dak., Oct. 30.—About 200 Sioux Indians, under White Ghost, from the lower Brule agency, passed up the Bad river yesterday, to reinforce the Standing Rock Indians in a rumored coming fight with the Crow Indians.

It is expected that Charger, with about 300 Indians, will join them at Cheyenne. The Crows are out in force, and are expected to strike the blow while the Sioux chiefs are at Washington. But they are late as the latter have returned.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The will of the late John Wentworth was admitted to probate this morning. The estate, which aggregates $1,500,000, is to be equally divided between the decedent's daughter, Roxana, and his nephew, Moses.

A Noted Judge's Death.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Judge William K. McAllister, of the appelate court, one of the most noted men on the bench of Illinois, died suddenly at his home in Ravenswood, this morning. His death was sudden and quite unexpected, although he was seventy years old.

Words of Caution to the Union Labor People.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 29, 1888.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

DEAR SIR:—As the majority of our voters in this district are laboring men, I think a few words of caution with regards to the Dispatch would not come amiss. Now, I am a reader of the Dispatch, which is considered the labor paper of the city, and I have always placed confidence in it; but as I read and learn I find it leading to the welfare of the republican party.

Now I am a laboring man, and believe in labor reform, but I do not believe in being bull-dozed by a few leaders. Let every man use his own sound sense and judgment and not be blindfolded by a few leaders. I would ask: "Why is it that the Dispatch does not place the name of Mr. Miner on the Union Labor ticket, as he is the Union Labor candidate for congress and not Mr. J. B. White."

Now I do not think it is doing justice to our candidate or to our party to omit the name of Mr. Miner. If it is the pleasure of some of the laboring men of this district to support Mr. White let them do so. But we would ask our leaders not to blindfold the poor, ignorant workingmen by placing the name of Mr. White on their ticket. I think it would be more honorable to those leaders to publish the correct ticket and if it is not the will of them to support Mr. Miner they can use stickers. Now I will state that I have no personal grudge against Mr. White; but he is a candidate on the republican ticket, and not on the union labor, therefore we ask to have the name of Mr. Miner on the ticket and not that of Mr. White.

Ringing Noises

In the ears, sometimes a roaring buzzing sound are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly remarkable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood. If you suffer from catarrh, try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the peculiar medicine.

THE republicans are denouncing some of their own institutions. After four more years of democratic rule there won't be a trace of the iniquitous republican reign.

CHRIS. WENZ, the 16-year-old son of John Wenz, who keeps a grocery in Sacramento, Ga., is a sleep-walker. The young man sleeps over his father's store. The other night he went to bed early. About 11 o'clock he jumped out of bed and, running to an open window, he leaped through it, and in less time than he could say so landed in the sandy street. The leap woke him up. Aside from a few slight bruises, the boy was uninjured. Fortunately, he made a good spring and landed in the sand instead of on the sidewalk.

A fine constitution may be ruined by simple neglect. Many bodily ills result from habitual constipation. There is no medicine equal to Ayer's Pills for restoring the system to natural and healthy action.

IN MEMORY OF MISS LOTTIE LEIB

In loving memory of Miss Lottie Leib, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leib, whose death occurred in this city, last week, aged twenty-nine years:

Oh! parents, your hearts seem breaking—
Lottie sleeps the sleep that knows no waking.
Her life was like a summer's rose—
How you will miss her, God only knows.

'Twas God that gave you the treasure,
And you loved her, oh! so well.
But the angels came and took her
To a better world to dwell.

Lottie, though sadly we miss thee,
When we gaze on thy vacant chair,
We must try to live so we will meet thee,
In that beautiful home over there.

You have gone a little sooner—
It must be for the best—
So we bow our head in submission,
For we know you are at rest.

—MRS. J. M. S.

NOT long ago the carp were taken out of the famous basin of Fontainebleau, in France, in order that the basin might be cleaned. A great fete has been arranged to celebrate the return of the fish. Silver rings are to be put in their noses and music and other ceremonies enough to frighten the poor fish to death are to accompany the putting of the fish back into the basin. It is intimated that enterprising men from Paris are already speculating on the chances of fishing in the basin for rings, however, and not for the carp.

THE annual death rate of London, it appears, is about twenty in one thousand, and that of New York about twenty-six in one thousand. The population of New York is given as 1,439,037, and of London as 4,149,533. The total number of deaths in New York in 1886 was 37,351, and in London 82,545. If New York had the same population as London, and the death rate from the different diseases was the same as at present exists, the number of deaths in New York would amount to 107,705, or 25,160 in excess of those in London.

APROPOS to the recent commutation of Chiara Cignarale's sentence, the New York Sun publishes an interview with Roscoe Conkling at the time the verdict was rendered many months ago. In the course of this interview, which, in accordance with Mr. Conkling's wishes, has been suppressed lest "it might have some influence in deciding Cignarale's fate," the eminent jurist said: "At no time should a woman's life be legally put in danger. Our civilization is surely too far advanced to permit the killing of a woman by process of law. It is bad enough, God knows, to hang a man. A woman's life life should never be taken, even though she has been found guilty of the awful crime of murder. The hastening to eternal judgment of a woman's soul by order of a civilized judge, in a civilized court of a civilized country, is a blot upon the manhood of this nation."

ALTHOUGH rains have been frequent this season and the ground is moist, extensive forest fires are reported in several places in Michigan. These fires are of more frequent occurrence and do more damage every year. At a recent meeting of the American Lumbermen's Association it was stated that more valuable trees were annually destroyed by fires than were cut and sent to market. Many of these fires are started by sparks from locomotives and from the smoke-stacks of steamers that penetrate the rivers in the lumber regions. Many more are kindled by sparks issuing from chimneys of steam sawmills. There are generally large collections of sawdust, shavings, bark, and small fragments of sawed lumber. As there is ordinarily no market for any of them they are allowed to accumulate in vast quantities. A fire started in them is almost certain to spread and do immense damage. Many more fires are started by hunters, amateur fishermen, excursionists, and persons who are camping in the woods for pleasure. They build fires in the woods for the purpose of cooking their food or for affording light at night, and they are at no pains to extinguish them when they move to a new place. These fires are often built by the side of a large stump, which continues to burn for weeks. The first high wind that occurs may carry sparks into the dry pine needles in the vicinity, and as a result a great forest will be in flames. Not a few fires are started by sportsmen who use matches for lighting cigars and then throw them among dry leaves. Experiments in European countries and in several of the provinces of Canada show that it is comparatively easy to prevent the starting or spread of fires in a forest. The owners of woodlands are not allowed to let dry branches accumulate on the ground or to permit fires to be built in them. Lumbermen and others who cut down trees for the purpose of obtaining timber or fuel are required to remove the branches or to burn them when the ground is covered with snow. Building open fires in the forest is an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment. Local inspectors of forests are appointed to see that the laws are enforced.

The revival meetings of Evangelists Updike and Hawes continue to call forth the most thoughtful and serious consideration of the best as well as the worst classes. No better sign can be given that the Christian church revival is the result of the spirit of God speaking through the truth by these men of God. Over one hundred have taken their stand for Christ already and the young men that confessed Christ last night and the scores of others who are attending night after night with serious attention, has put fresh courage in the workers, especially in the hearts of the praying mothers of our city. God grant that the young men of Fort Wayne may make a grand rally around the banner of Jesus Christ to-night. Services at 2:30 and 7:30 each day.

Vicar General Brammer proposes to replace the cement walk leading to Calhoun street with stone, and marble will replace the board floor in the Cathedral vestibule.

An amusing and instructive incident of the republican meeting at Hoagland, last night, is told by the republicans. Captain White and others spoke. Some republican proposed three cheers for Harrison and in it the speakers joined, but the response was awfully feeble. Then some democrat proposed three cheers for Cleveland and the hearty response almost raised the roof of the building. Thus run the "grand republican rallies."

There is to be a great democratic rally at Angola to-morrow night in honor of Senator Voorhees and the Thurman club, of this city, will escort the speaker. At Decatur Thursday night occurs another rally and it will be a great affair. The democrats of this city are under obligations to both towns and Chairman Hamilton is desirous that the clubs of this city attend both rallies as largely as possible. Reduced rates and extra inducements are offered.

The police commissioners met yesterday, Mayor Muhler presiding. They sustained the charges preferred by Captain Diehl against Officer Sheridan and the latter was discharged from the police force. The officer was found guilty of drunkenness and if this rule prevails without favoritism we will have a number of police changes. It would be a public blessing to enforce sobriety anyway, and no where is it needed more than on the police force. This does not apply to police officers who do not drink, and to their credit, be it said, we have a few of them.

MONROEVILLE.

An Interesting Budget of News From Our Busy Neighbor.

Hog cholera still prevails.

New corn is rapidly coming into market.

Politics will soon be a thing of the past and the average politician will resume his avocation.

Smith & Wagner are building a farm residence for D. A. Row.

Hursh Kleckler, son of 'Squire Kleckler, of Adams county, died, last Thursday, of consumption, at the age of twenty-two years. His remains were interred in the cemetery, near Clark's chapel, last Friday. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker Edwards, of this place.

J. E. Graham spoke to a fair crowd, yesterday afternoon, at the democratic headquarters.

J. W. Jones, the democratic candidate for county commissioner, is making a thorough and lively canvass of the county and is meeting with hosts of friends everywhere. He is every inch a gentleman and can not fail to win the esteem and confidence of those whom he may chance to meet. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Jones and can truthfully say that no more capable man can be selected to fill the responsible office to which he aspires. Mr. Jones taught school for a number of years, was a justice of the peace of Monroe township, to which he served with credit. He then moved on his farm in Jackson township and was elected trustee of said township, which office he served with honor for four years. Jackson township by right deserves the honor of placing the next county commissioner of the First district, as it has never been represented in the county legislature.

Seymour Jones and Miss Annie Neisweitz, both of this place, were married by Rev. Bowen, last week. Mr. Jones is a brother of J. W. Jones, democratic candidate for commissioner of the First district.

Mrs. Kathrina Doyle, wife of John Doyle, of this place, died of arsenic at her home last Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle once lived in Fort Wayne.

Louis May will soon be domiciled in his pleasant new brick residence near the Catholic church.

John Friedline, who had his leg amputated on account of an accident which happened him while descending the steps of the Columbus excursion train at this place some time ago, is able to be out on his crutches.

Mr. M. Franke, the pleasant and accommodating trustee of Madison township, will hold his first township teachers' institute at Hoagland, November 17. A full program is made out, and we vouch that they will have a good and profitable time.

Monroeville is booming as a grain market and the cereal is coming into town from a great distance.

Preparations are being made for the grand democratic rally of the season, which is to take place next Saturday evening. The committee has not yet decided as to the speakers, but there is assurances that there will be good orators present.

Monroeville produces more "statesmen" than any other town of its size and soon every stump, barrel and store box will hold up one of them, eagerly explaining to the intelligent voter how "we'll go to the dickens if the other fellows get the office."

Yesterday was prohibition day in Monroeville. Mrs. St. John was advertised to be the main card, but she failed to appear. Consequently a large crowd assembled at the democratic headquarters to hear E. G. Coverdale, the great Decatur reformer, on the prohibition question.

M. B. Knouse returned from LaPorte, Ind., where he had been attending an eight-week term of the Horological institute.

The trio who endeavored to drift politics into private affairs are as cunning as pet coons. Their scheme is discovered and now their presence is obscured.

It is reported that the rough elements that participated in the riot during the last republican rally at this place, came by request to do "up" the "boys" of Monroeville. We do not believe that any of our people sent any such invitation, as one of the parties in question claims to be an independent, although he advocates republicanism under an independent fleece. However, it turned up that the "rough elements" were done "by."

The new Catholic church is about completed, and the grand fair commences without fail, on Monday, November 12, and is to continue until the following Monday. The Pittsburg road will give excursion rates to accommodate those who are to come here from the east and west. The Catholic people extends a hearty invitation to their many friends to be present, and nothing will be left undone to make it pleasant and agreeable. Arrangements have been made whereby warm meals will be served at all times in the main building. There is plenty of fun left in store for both young and old, and no one should fail to attend. A contest will take place each evening, in which Fort Wayne, Decatur, Payne and Monroeville parties will be interested. The most excited one will be the voting of a fine ladies' gold watch to the most popular young lady of the above named places. Over 1,500 fair tickets have already been sold, and the present indications are that it will be the grandest social affair of the season.

A SAD DEATH.

Little Lizzie Schulz Dies as a Result of Her Injuries.

Miss Lizzie Schulz, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schulz, of Gay street, who was so horribly burned Sunday, the particulars of which were published in yesterday's SENTINEL, died last night about 9 o'clock, as a result of her injuries.

The child was a terrible sufferer, her body in many places having been burned to a crisp. Her fright and sufferings brought on brain fever and the ravings of the little one were heart rending to hear, so that death really came a welcome visitor in her case. The bereaved family have the sympathies of a wide circle of friends in their sad affliction.

Judge Edward O'Rourke issued second naturalization papers to eighty persons last night, while Dr. Loag and his assistants were deluged by applicants for first papers.

Henry Meyer, a Pleasant township farmer, died yesterday, aged sixty-five years. He was an old bachelor and will be buried from the residence of his brother, Christian Meyer, in Wayne township, Thursday afternoon.

It is amusing to see people with their face drawn as if they had swallowed a feather and it was tickling their lungs, and they would be happy if they could only sneeze. Now, there is no need of "making faces." A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will draw your face back into a smile.

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked and frequently entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only cure.
